

THERESA CHONG

DUINO ELEGIES

CATALOGUES AVAILABLE NOW

ABOUT THE CATALOGUE

Duino Elegies is a 40 page fully illustrated catalogue published on "Theresa Chong: Duino Elegies" at Holly Johnson Gallery in Dallas. The catalogue features an essay by David Brody, as well as the eleven works from the exhibition.

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

Theresa Chong: Duino Elegies, an exhibition of works on paper inspired by Rainer Maria Rilke's, the Duino Elegies. The exhibit will be accompanied by a fully illustrated catalogue with an essay by David Brody. An open house was held from November 20 through February 12.

The artist recently expressed - "Rilke, his dedication to truth, his celebration of beauty in very ordinary things was my inspiration in expressing what is timelessness beauty through simplicity in choice of materials and execution. These drawings were done during a challenging time dealing with a terrible personal loss and coping with life changing experiences. Rilke's writings and his poems were my inspiration to my work."

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Theresa Chong was born in Seoul, Korea and immigrated to Fairbanks, Alaska where she spent most of her formative years painting, drawing, and practicing cello. She spent a year at Oberlin Conservatory as a cello performance major and transferred to Boston University's School of Fine Arts receiving her BFA in painting in 1989 and her MFA in painting at the School of Visual Arts in 1991.

Her work is in the collection of: Whitney Museum of American Art, Museum of Fine Arts in Houston, Texas, Albright-Knox Art Gallery in Buffalo, New York, Yale University Art Gallery, in New Haven, CT, and the Fogg Art Museum at Harvard University, Deloitte & Touche in San Francisco, CA, General Dynamics, Inc. in Falls Church, VA, Pfizer, Inc. in New York City, Progressive Corporation Art Collection in Mayfield Village in Ohio, Weatherspoon Art Gallery, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, NC, UT Southwestern Medical Center, Dallas, TX, and Werner Kramarsky's Fifth Floor Foundation in New York City.

